

Roginskiy V.V. (Moscow) Napoleon's policy in the North of Europe on the eve of war of 1812.

The nuances of Napoleon's foreign policy towards Northern Europe countries (Denmark, Norway and Sweden) are examined in detail in this article as well as reasons and conditions of Bernadotte's accession to the Swedish throne.

Vovsi E.M.(Talahassi) Structure and losses of the Great Army in the Battle of Borodino (according to the materials of the French archives)

In the article the author analyses the problem of possibility of an exact estimation of the Great Army's losses in the Battle of Borodino.

Iskul S.N. (Saint-Petersburg) The French in Moscow in 1812.

The author is reconstructing the history of the French occupation of Moscow by Napoleon's army in 1812 analyzing the numerous documents and memoirs of the contemporaries.

Zemtsov V.N. (Ekaterinburg) Lauriston in the headquarters of Kutuzov.

The article is dedicated to such a little but very important episode of the Patriotic War of 1812, as the general Lauriston's visit to the headquarters of Kutuzov.

Popov A.I. (Samara) Napoleon's social policy in Russia in 1812.

The article is dedicated to the question why Napoleon didn't proclaim the abolition of the serfdom in Russia as he had done it earlier in some European countries.

Bezotosniy V.M. (Moscow) The French among the Russian generals in 1812.

This essay, based on the official lists analyses, is dedicated to the French generals in the Russian army.

Tannerberg T. (Tartu) Recruiting of the Russian army in the first half of XIX century.

The article is dedicated to one of the main problems of the Russian army in the beginning of the 19th century: the replacement of recruitment by conscription.

Ivchenko L.L. (Moscow) M.I. Kutuzov in the Russian historiography. The issue of the Kutuzov's biography study.

The article is dedicated to the genesis and evolution of both "black" and "rose" legends about the general Kutuzov in Soviet and Russian historiography.

Lentz T. (Paris) Reminiscences on 1812 in the years of the Great Patriotic War (1941-1945). Transl. from French by Yu. V. Tkachenko.

This essay is dedicated to the return of the image of Kutuzov to the Soviet pantheon of the important historical personalities during the Great Patriotic War.

Forrest A. (York) A Honorable Adversary or Vicious Barbarian? The Perception of the Enemy in the Age of the French Revolution and Napoleonic Wars

The article is dedicated to the exposure of different nuances of the image-making of the Other in the age of French Revolution and Napoleonic Empire.

Prusskaya E.A. (Moscow) The French Press in Egypt about the Orient.

The article is dedicated to the image of the Orient and its inhabitants according to the newspaper Courrier de l'Égypte and magazine La Décade Égyptienne published in Egypt during the Bonaparte's expedition.

Goubina M.V. (Paris) Images of the enemies in perception of the conquerors of Europe (1805-1812)

On basis of the personal correspondence and diaries the author exposes how the French perceived the countries occupied by them.

Joor J. (Amsterdam) Protest and anti-Napoleonic image making In Holland during the Napoleonic period (1806-1813). Transl. from English by E.A. Prusskaya

The article is dedicated to the forms, peculiarities and significance of the anti-Napoleonic propaganda in Holland in period of 1806-1813, which is known in the Netherlands historiography as the "Napoleonic period".

Mednikov I. Yu. (Moscow) The Invasion of "the Antichrist": the French in the mirror of the war of the Independence in Spain.

The author analyses the image of the conqueror and his army that was formed in Spain during Napoleonic wars.

Rjeutskij V.S. (Bristol) The Moscow French in 1812 and the image-making of the enemy

The author analyses the way of life and destinies of the French living in Moscow before and during the war of 1812.

Chudinov A.S. Against whom did a Russian peasant struggle in 1812? The Image of the Enemy in Mass Consciousness

The article is dedicated to the image of the enemy in Russian folklore, in particular, concerning the Patriotic war of 1812.

Rey M.P. Russia and the Russian in the view of the captive French in 1812: a comparative study.
Transl. from the French by Yu.V. Tkachenko

The author analyses the memoirs of the French prisoners of war about Russia – “a country of suffering and of contrasts”.

Cherpinska A. (Riga) Image of the enemy in publicist works of Garlieb Merkel during 1812 war.

The article is dedicated to the patriotic publicism of Garlieb Merkel, a famous Livonia writer fighting against serfdom.

Promyslov N.V. (Moscow) War Against Spaces and Climate: French Memoirs on the 1812 campaign

The author investigates system of the images of the Other in the French memoirs about the war of 1812.

Kuzmina M.V. (Moscow) The Image of the Body Love in the Middle Ages: about the book by F. Colin-Goguel

The review is dedicated to a book on the sex in the Middle Ages, abundantly illustrated by the miniatures from Spanish, French, English and Italian manuscripts and other fine arts images of those period.

Bovikin D.Yu. (Moscow) Revolution of the human rights: about S.F. Blumenau's book.

Review of a new book of S.F. Blumenau dedicated to the reforms of the Constituante.

Pogosyan V.A. (Erevan) To the question of the polemics of Albert Mathiez with Soviet historians.

The author analyzes ancient polemics of A. Mathiez with Soviet historians from the point of view of nowadays.

Pogosyan V.A. (Erevan) French Revolution and the First Empire in the light of the historiography disputes: about H. Lewers' book.

Review of the H. Lewers' book is dedicated to the interpretations of the French Revolution and Napoleonic epoch.

Kaninskaya G.N. (Yaroslavl) What has happened with the 5th Republic? About the book Comprendre la V^e République, ed. by J. Garrigues, S. Guillaume, J-F. Sirinelli

Reflection on the book analyzing the social and political changes in France in the last half of the 20th century.